

Head

This is the knowledge we will gain this half term.
For example:

- How has the Snibston Mine changed?
- What do we use different vehicles for?
- How do vehicles move

What we are learning this half term in Ladybirds EYFS

Heart

The key value to let our light shine is:

Generosity

Hand

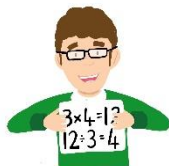

These are the skills we will learn this half term.
For example:

- Collage techniques
- Using instruments
- Creating a pictogram to show data

Maths

- Matching numerals to amounts to 10
- Undertaking a vehicle survey
- Creating patterns
- Combining shapes to make pictures

Are We There Yet?

Religious Education

- Diwali – Why do Hindus celebrate Diwali?
- Why do Christians perform Nativity plays at Christmas.

Communication and Language

- Word Warrior activities
- Using language to retell experiences
- Learning new vocabulary linked to transport

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

- Sharing and taking turns
- Asking questions about what we have learned
- Talking about our strengths and weaknesses
- Circle times and Persona Doll activities focussing on considering others' perspectives and feelings.

Expressive Arts and Design

- Home corner role play
- Building junk model vehicles
- Painting with vehicles
- Singing and creating songs about vehicles, using instruments to depict different vehicles

Spark day

- Local traffic survey and walk to Snibston Mine to see the train tracks
- Trip to the Aerozone

Book List

Mr Gumpy's Outing
The Train Ride
Cars, Trucks and Things that Go

The Hundred Decker Bus
The Journey
All About Vehicles

Literacy

- Reading and writing CVC words
- Beginning to write labels and captions
- Reading non-fiction books about transport
- Identifying learned letter/sound correspondences

Understanding the World

- Planting spring bulbs in the garden
- Learning about Road Safety
- eSafety lessons
- Using different technology (spheros)
- Bonfire Night
- Learning about Coalville's mining History, and how Coalville looked in the past.

Physical Development

- Big moves
- Letter formation through phonics lessons
- Using bikes and scooters
- Dough disco fine motor activities

