10th March 2026.

Dear Parent/Carer,

I am writing to update you regarding a recent social media trend referred to as “School Wars.” Over the weekend, some social media activity has mentioned a few local primary schools (not All Saints), and we want to reassure you that we are fully aware of this situation and are monitoring it closely from the school’s perspective.

When we were first informed about this so-called trend last week, we made the decision not to discuss it with the children, as we did not want to cause unnecessary worry or draw attention to something they may not otherwise be aware of. We continue to believe this is the most appropriate approach.

We want to reassure you that children are safe in school, and there have been no incidents on or around the school site. It appears that any reported activity linked to this trend has taken place outside of school hours, and as such, we would like to emphasise the importance of remaining vigilant about your child’s movements and supervision outside of school.

Amanda Hack, our local MP, has been informed about the situation. She has assured us that she will be feeding this information back through the appropriate channels.

Please be assured that we will continue to monitor the situation and will update you should anything change. If you have any concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Kind Regards

Headteacher
